

Information on the procurement of energy-related services, products and equipment

In the procurement of services, products and equipment which have significant influence on the energy usage and energy consumption in ASMPT or of ASMPT products, we will consider the energy efficiency over the useful life in our procurement decision.

We ask our suppliers to assist us in improving our energy efficiency by appropriate products and services.